

OBJECTIVES
PRACTICAL PEDIATRICS CONFERENCE
WHAT'S NEW?
WEDNESDAY APRIL 11, 2018

Presenter: Dr. Andrea Hunter

Title: Caring for Children & Youth New to Canada: What's new for pediatricians?

Objectives:

- Medical expert:
 - Identify key health issues specific to refugee/immigrant children with an approach to their investigation and management
- Communicator:
 - Identify principles of effective use of language interpretation within clinical interactions
- Health advocate:
 - Discuss steps that health providers can take in caring for, and advocating with newcomer families

Presenter: Dr. Iman Shbash

Title: Quick Hit: My patient is psychotic – call the surgeon!

Objectives:

Medical expert: To review an approach to acute psychosis

Presenter: Dr. Connie Williams

Title: What's new in neonatal outcomes: collaborative pearls for the Pediatrician

Objectives:

- To highlight the evolving knowledge related to neonatal outcomes involving extreme prematurity, neonatal hypoglycemia, and the complicated vs. uncomplicated late-preterm infant.
 - CanMEDS roles: medical expert, scholar
- To collaborate in an interactive session exploring counseling and management strategies aimed at these higher risk populations across the community to tertiary care spectrum.
 - CanMEDS roles: collaborator, communicator, professional

Presenter: Dr. Kelly Fitzpatrick

Title: Spot Diagnosis

Objectives:

Medical expert: Recognize and enhance the ability to identify a selection of pediatric spot diagnoses.

Presenter: Dr. Natasha Johnson

Title: Access to Gender Affirming Care within the Children's Hospital – Where are we and where would we like to go?

Objectives:

- Medical expert: To review important aspects of the care of transgender children and youth
- Health advocate: List benefits of access to gender affirming care
- Leader/collaborator: Describe a new clinical initiative with McMaster Children's Hospital

Presenter: Dr. Sheri Findlay

Title: Pediatric Chronic Pain - Easing the pain by focusing on function.

Objectives:

Medical Expert:

1. Improve knowledge of the epidemiology, assessment and initial management of pediatric chronic pain
2. Learn about the importance of patient and family education in managing this condition.
3. Learn about the functional rehabilitative approach to management of pediatric chronic pain.

Manager:

1. Learn about the new Pediatric Chronic Pain Program at McMaster Children's Hospital and which patients would benefit from referral.

Presenter: Dr. Andrew Latchman; Resource person: Dr. David Callen

Title: Quick Hit: Do you see what I see?

Objectives:

Medical expert: To review the causes of abnormal eye movements in neonates

Presenter: Dr. Jodi Rosner

Title: A Year in Review, Interesting Articles in 2017

Objectives:

This presentation will review current literature and at the end of this presentation participants will

1. Gain knowledge from the review of articles from 2018.
2. Apply the information gained from the article review to evaluate current clinical practice.

Presenter: Dr. Kristen Hallett

Title: Spot Diagnosis

Objectives:

Medical expert: Recognize and enhance the ability to identify a selection of pediatric spot diagnoses.

Presenter: Dr. Brandon Meaney and Dr. Adam Fleming

Title: Is the grass really greener? “Medical Marijuana” in Pediatrics

Objectives:

Following this session, participants will be able to:

- Discuss the existing evidence regarding the use of medical marijuana in pediatric health care [Medical Expert]
- Appropriately counsel families regarding potential therapeutic uses of medical marijuana [Health Advocate / Communicator]